

OAKVILLE BEAVER

Release: Sep 22, 2010

Cancer riders. OAKVILLE PITSTOP: Oakville resident David Wilson embraces his children, Taylor and Kaitlin, after meeting them at Sears during the Sears National Kids Cancer Ride at Oakville Place on Saturday. The ride's goal is to raise funds for children's cancer research. More than 100 cyclists are making their way from Vancouver to Halifax in 15 days. Dan Ho / SPECIAL TO THE BEAVER

Cancer riders. OAKVILLE PITSTOP: Jonathan Denoon, Ken Cross, Josh Nelson (chair), Drew Molnar and Alicia Denoon pose for a picture during the Sears National Kids Cancer Ride at Oakville Place on Saturday. The ride's goal is to raise funds for children's cancer research. More than 100 cyclists are making their way from Vancouver to Halifax in 15 days. Dan Ho / SPECIAL TO THE BEAVER

Cancer riders. OAKVILLE PITSTOP: Oakville residents Dan Watt (front row, left) and David Wilson (front row, right), flank Michael Smith as they lead the Sears National Kids Cancer Ride into Oakville Place on Saturday. The ride's goal is to raise funds for children's cancer research. More than 100 cyclists are making their way from Vancouver to Halifax in 15 days. Dan Ho / SPECIAL TO THE BEAVER